

GREAT WATERS CENTER FOR LIFELONG LEARNING

YOUR BRIDGE TO THE FUTURE

COURSE OFFERINGS FOR AUGUST 2009

MAKE AND TAKE SERIES:

These are single session courses which focus on crafting an item for your home or personal use. At the end of the class, take your production home with you to enjoy. Materials will be supplied.

TITLE: From the Earth to the Hearth

Monday, August 10: 7:00 to 9:30 PM

INSTRUCTOR: Clarlyn Ledy

Learn the ancient art of gourd decorating from Clarlyn Ledy. In this class you will learn to clean, cut and decorate your gourd in either primitive fashion, natural appearance or you may use any of the supplied beads or other embellishments. This is a great way to get out and socialize and learn about the role of gourds in ancient civilizations. You will go home with a finished craft ready to hang outside or display in your home.

This session is limited to 8 participants.

LOCATION: Great Waters Center - 2 North State Street

FEE: $25

Note: Cost for the class is $20 and a gourd may be purchased from Clarlyn for $5. Or, participants are welcome to bring their own gourd.

TITLE: Silver 'n Beads

Monday, August 17: 7:00 to 9:30 PM

INSTRUCTOR: Denny Tryban

Using sterling silver and semi precious stones, create a bracelet that will stun your friends.

This session is limited to 15 participants.

LOCATION: Great Waters Center

FEE: $25

TITLE: Creative Stamping

Monday, August 24: 7:00 to 9:30 PM

INSTRUCTORS: Hilda Ryerse & Shirley Goudreau

Learn the techniques of producing your own gift cards for the holidays and other special occasions.

This session is limited to 15 participants.

LOCATION: Great Waters Center - 2 North State Street

FEE: $25
